

TAIGA: status, results and perspectives

Tuesday, June 9, 2020 9:00 AM (30 minutes)

We present the current status of very high-energy cosmic and gamma ray installation TAIGA at the Tunka Astrophysical Center situated at about 50 km from Lake Baikal. The deployment first stage installation consists of 120 optical stations of HiSCORE array and 3 IACT will be finished in autumn of 2020. The last results of local sources observation during 2019 -2020a and plan for the further modification of the installation will be presented.

Presenter: Prof. KUZMICHEV, Leonid

Session Classification: Session 3